SILVER WINE LABEL - LONDON - 1999 by MAPPIN & WEBB

A fine silver wine label by Mappin & Webb, hallmarked in London in 1999. This elegant piece of English silverware is a charming addition to any collection of silver wine accessories, antique barware or Mappin & Webb silver.

Designed as a traditional wine bottle label, it combines practical function with the understated elegance associated with Mappin & Webb silver. Its London hallmark and 1999 date make it an interesting example of late 20th-century British silver craftsmanship and a desirable choice for collectors of English silver and silver wine labels.

Ideal for displaying on a favourite bottle of wine or as part of a collection of silver barware and drinks-related antiques, this Mappin & Webb wine label also makes a distinctive gift for a wine enthusiast, silver collector or admirer of traditional British craftsmanship.

Why Collect Mappin & Webb Silver?

Mappin & Webb is one of Britain's best-known names in fine silver and luxury goods. A silver wine label bearing the Mappin & Webb name offers collectors the opportunity to own a beautifully crafted piece of British silverware with a clear maker's association and London hallmark.

Whether you are looking for a Mappin & Webb silver wine label, a piece of London silver dated 1999, or an unusual addition to an antique and vintage barware collection, this wine label is an elegant and highly collectable choice.
